Can't find your WAL number? Do you have a reference number? A reference number starts with a two digit number, followed by 'AL' and then several numbers. Use the following tool to find your WAL by entering your reference number. Enter the reference number to find the WAL number.

Cancelled WALs are not searchable on the NSW Water Register.

Notes:

The search results will list the conditions imposed on the water access licence. Any approved water supply work/s nominated on the water access licence are identified by the approval number/s for the work/s.

The information about a water access licence provided in the search results is a summary and may not always be up to date. If you require full and up to date details about a particular water access licence (including current holders, share and extraction component details, encumbrances and notations) you should search the Water Access Licence Register administered by NSW Land Registry Services.

Take of water

MW8562-
00001

The volume of water taken under this access licence during a period of 3 consecutive water years must not be more than the maximum water account debit permitted, which is the sum of the following:

- A. the water allocations credited to the water allocation account for this access licence from available water determinations made during those 3 water years,
- B. the amount of water allocations assigned to the water allocation account for this access licence,
- C. the water allocations recredited to the water allocation account for this access licence.

- A. Water must not be taken from an:
 - i. in-river pool that is below full capacity,
 - ii. off-river pool that is below full capacity, or
 - iii. in-river dam pool unless the take is not inconsistent with a water supply work approval authorising the use of a water supply work for the purpose of taking water from the in-river dam.
- B. This restriction does not apply if water is taken for the purpose of domestic consumption and the volume taken does not exceed 1 kl/day for each household supplied by this access licence.

MW8563-
00003

- A. Water must not be taken under this access licence when there is no visible flow at the location from which water is taken.
- B. This restriction does not apply if water is taken:
 - i. from an in-river pool, off-river pool, in-river dam pool or a run-off harvesting dam, or
 - ii. for the purpose of domestic consumption and the volume taken does not exceed 1 kl/day for each household supplied by this access licence.

Use of water

MA6945-
00010

Water must only be used for the purpose of domestic consumption.

Monitoring and recording

00001

- A. The access licence holder must record the following information in a logbook for each period of time that water is taken:
 - i. date, volume of water taken, start and end time when water was taken, and
 - ii. the access licence number under which the water is taken, and
 - iii. the approval number of the water supply work used to take the water, and
 - iv. the purposes for which water is taken.
- B. The access licence holder must record the following information in the logbook at the end of each water year:
 - i. the volume of water taken in the water year, and
 - ii. the maximum volume of water permitted to be taken in that water year.
- C. This requirement does not apply if water is taken through a water supply work that has both an operational:

i. meter that complies with Australian Standard AS 4747 - Meters for non-urban water supply, and
ii. data logger.

D. This condition ceases to apply to this access licence on the day on which the mandatory metering equipment condition applies as specified in clause 230(1) in the Water Management (General) Regulation 2018.

MW6612-00001 A logbook used to record water take information must be retained for five (5) years from the last date recorded in the logbook.

MW8482-00002 A. Before water is taken under this access licence, the access licence holder must confirm that cease to take conditions do not apply and water may be taken.
B. Where the access licence holder is required to keep a logbook, the access licence holder must record the confirmation, including the way in which the confirmation was established, in a logbook.
